History of the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis

Indianapolis was established as a town in 1821. It was at this time that a commission, appointed by the legislature, selected this location as a site for a seat of government of the State of Indiana.

The town of Indianapolis conducted its affairs pursuant to the general laws of the state until 1832. In this year the town was incorporated and was governed by a board of five trustees.

In 1838, pursuant to a special act of the legislature, Indianapolis was re-incorporated and placed in the hands of the first town council composed of a president and six members.

The common council continued in a large measure to control the affairs of Indianapolis as a town and as a city under various so-called charters or grants of the legislature until 1891.

Under a special act of the legislature of 1891 for the city of Indianapolis, a somewhat different form of government was established. While the council continued to exercise broad control over the city's affairs, various executive departments of the city were provided, such as Public Works, Public Safety, Public Parks and Public Health, conducted by boards appointed by the Mayor. These boards were granted specific powers and duties concerning the city's business previously exercised by the council through committees subject, however, in some cases to approval of the council in all matters of expenditure of money and appropriation of funds by the council.

For some time prior to 1891 the City of Indianapolis was divided into 25 wards represented by 25 ward councilmen. Their term of office was two years and they were eligible for re-election. At this time there was also a separate body operating in conjunction with the council called the Board of Aldermen, composed of ten Aldermen, representing five Aldermanic districts, two being elected from each district.

Under the 1891 act the Board of Aldermen was abolished and a common council of 21 members was established. Fifteen members were elected to represent 15 wards and six members were elected to represent the city at large.

This form of council continued to exist in Indianapolis under the general cities and towns act of 1905. The act of 1905, while often referred to as the Indianapolis Charter, is very largely a re-enactment of the 1891 Indianapolis Charter, modified to make the Indianapolis system applicable to all classes of cities of the state. The 1905 law increased the term of Mayor and councilmen to four years and prohibited re-election.

In 1909 a novel councilmanic law for Indianapolis alone was passed by the legislature. This law limits the number of councilmen to nine. The law provides for the nomination by each party of six candidates, one from each of six councilmanic districts. In the election all of the voters of the city may vote for any nine candidates and the nine receiving the highest number of votes are elected. This law insures a minority representation in the Council of at least three members. In 1949 the legislature amended the statutes to permit councilmen to succeed themselves.

AN ORDINANCE prohibiting obscenity in the City of Indianapolis, Marion County, Indiana.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS, MARION COUNTY, INDIANA:

Section 1.1—Obscenity Defined. A thing is obscene, if considered as a whole, its predominant appeal is to prurient interest, that is, a shameful or morbid interest in nudity, sex or excretion, and if it goes substantially beyond customary limits of candor in description or representation of such matters. A thing is obscene even though the obscenity is latent, as in the case of undeveloped photographs.

Section 1.2—Acts Prohibited. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation with knowledge of the nature or content thereof, to exhibit, sell, print, offer to sell, give away, circulate, publish, distribute, or attempt to distribute any obscene book, magazine, pamphlet, paper, writing, card, advertisement, circular, print, picture, photograph, motion picture, film, play, image, instrument, statue, drawing, or other article which is obscene.

Section 1.3—Children Under 18 Years. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation with knowledge of the nature or content thereof to exhibit, sell, offer to sell, give away, circulate, or distribute or attempt to distribute to any person under the age of 18 years any obscene book, magazine, pamphlet, paper, writing, card, advertisement, circular, print, picture, photograph, motion picture film, play, image, instrument, statue, drawing, or other material.

Section 1.4—Interpretation and Admissibility of Evidence. Obscenity shall be judged with reference to ordinary adults, except that it shall be judged with reference to children or other specially susceptible audience if it appears from the character of the material or the circumstances of its dissemination to be specially designed for or directed to such an audience. In any prosecution for an offense under this Section evidence shall be admissible to show:

(1) The character of the audience for which the material was designed or to which it was directed.

(2) What the predominant appeal of the material would be for ordinary adults or a special audience, and what effect, if any, it would probably have on the behavior of such people.

(4) The degree, if any, of public acceptance of the material in this State;

(6) Purpose of the author, creator, publisher or disseminator.

Section 1.5—Prima Facie Evidence. The creation, purchase, procurement or possession of a mold, engraved plate or other embodiment of obscenity specially adapted for reproducing multiple copies, or the possession of more than 3 copies of obscene material shall be prima facie evidence of an intent to disseminate.

Section 1.6—Defenses. It shall be an affirmative defense to a prosecution brought for violation of this Ordinance that the dissemination:

(1) Was to institutions or individuals having scientific or other special justification for possession of such material.

Section 1.7—Penalty. Any person, firm or corporation who violates the provisions of Section 1.2 of this Ordinance, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in an amount of not less than One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars nor more than Three Hundred ($300.00) Dollars.

Section 1.9—Validity and Separability. Should any section, paragraph, sentence or word of this Ordinance be declared for any reason to be invalid, such invalidity shall not effect the validity or enforcibility of any other section, paragraph, sentence or word.

WHEREAS: The sale of such obscene periodicals, films, etc., has increased materially in the last few years.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA:

Section 1.1—Obscenity Defined. A thing is obscene, if considered as a whole, its predominant appeal is to prurient interest, that is, a shameful or morbid interest in nudity, sex or excretion, and if it goes substantially beyond customary limits of candor in description or representation of such matters. A thing is obscene even though the obscenity is latent, as in the case of undeveloped photographs.

Section 1.2—Acts Prohibited. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation with knowledge of the nature or content thereof, to exhibit, sell, print, offer to sell, give away, circulate, publish, distribute, or attempt to distribute any obscene book, magazine, pamphlet, paper, writing, card, advertisement, circular, print, picture, photograph, motion picture, film play, image, instrument, statue, drawing, or other article which is obscene.

Section 1.4—Interpretation and Admissibility of Evidence. Obscenity shall be judged with reference to ordinary adults, except that it shall be judged with reference to children or other specially susceptible audience if it appears from the character of the material or the circumstances of its dissemination to be specially designed for or directed to such an audience. In any prosecution for an offense under this Section evidence shall be admissible to show:

(1) The character of the audience for which the material was designed or to which it was directed.

(2) What the predominant appeal of the material would be for ordinary adults or a special audience, and what effect, if any, it would probably have on the behavior of such people.

(3) The artistic, literary, scientific, educational or other merits of the material, or absence thereof;

(4) The degree, if any, of public acceptance of the material in this State;

(5) Appeal to prurient interest, or absence thereof, in advertising or other promotion of the material;

(6) Purpose of the author, creator, publisher or disseminator.

Section 1.5—Prima Facie Evidence. The creation, purchase, procurement or possession of a mold, engraved plate or other embodiment of obscenity specially adapted for reproducing multiple copies, or the possession of more than 3 copies of obscene material shall be prima facie evidence of an intent to disseminate.

Section 1.6—Defenses. It shall be an affirmative defense to a prosecution brought for violation of this Ordinance that the dissemination:

(1) Was to institutions or individuals having scientific or other special justification for possession of such material.

Section 1.7—Penalty. Any person, firm or corporation who violates the provisions of Section 1.2 of this Ordinance, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in an amount of not less than One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars nor more than Three Hundred ($300.00) Dollars.

Mr. Brydenthal presented the following Special Resolution No. 6, 1966.

SPECIAL RESOLUTION NO. 6, 1966

WHEREAS The City of Indianapolis, thorugh its Common Council, pauses to pay tribute to a man whose untimely death took away from us a dedicated, energetic, knowledgeable leader.

Howard F. Gustafson came to our city to direct the Health and Welfare Council. His immediate job was with the network of voluntary community services that were the Council's constituents, but he had the vision to know that the scope of the Council must extend beyond this network—must reach out and encompass governmental agencies and the community-at-large, in order to weave a harmonious pattern of growth and progress for this community, and

WHEREAS While Howard Gustafson was not officially affiliated with any governmental unit of our city or county, in the past decade he had become the strong right arm of many.

Our city has many problems; many needs; ranging from housing to health, from education to employment, from recreation to racial justice. While many citizens seem totally unaware of these, and a few know something about some needs, this man understood the complete picture. He knew the needs and the problems, but he knew also the path our city had to follow. He had the facts and knowledge and more—he had the dedication, devotion and ability to do something about it, and

WHEREAS To this end he remodeled his agency into the Community Service Council, with a broader base of membership which drew governmental units and community leaders into the planning processes, together with private and voluntary agencies serving the community's health, welfare and recreation needs. He sharpened and widened the focus of the CSC's research and planning activities so that problems became clearly defined, as did avenues to solutions, and

WHEREAS He drew in acknowledged community leaders, but he also shaped and molded other new and vigorous leaders from those whom he sought out from all walks of life, exciting and igniting them to work on community problems and to embrace them as their own. He had a rare ability to inspire concerted action, to make progress possible. More and more, units of government and elected officials turned to his agency, and to him personally, as our community moved out of the past and toward a future, and

WHEREAS He had vision that saw beyond the immediate job to be done. He was among the first to recognize impending problems of the inner-city; a housing crisis, the need for long-range recreational planning, to name a few. He sparked a movement to combine social planning with physical rehabilitation of the city more than a decade before this concept gained national acceptance.

It would be impossible to list the actual and tangible achievements that exist today because of this man's leadership, largely because of his personal modesty. His method was to focus on the problem, to match the job to be done to the community leaders who could do it, and to keep himself in the background, so the final flush of triumph was theirs, not his. But it would be fair to say that every inch of progress in our city in the past 10 years can be traced directly or indirectly to Howard F. Gustafson. He was the bridge between "should" and "can"—between "why" and "how." His was the voice to which those both with need and those with knowledge, those with problems and those with power, listened.

Just as it was never his purpose to win local recognition or acclaim, so it was that he never revealed locally his national and even international stature. His personal modesty was so great that it was a surprise to many who knew him well, who worked with him closely, when his untimely death unleased a flood of national and international expressions of tribute.

He was outstanding in his own social work profession, as evidenced by the fact he was serving as president of the National Association of Social Workers, the highest post in his own field, at the time of his death. The pattern which he established here has been copied by many other cities over the nation to assess and attack their own problems.

From all over the world, from top governmental offices in Washington, from the nation's outstanding schools of social service, have come tributes, attesting to the national stature this man gained, simply in the course of doing the job he saw must be done for this city.

Many larger and wealthies cities had sought him out in recent years, but these inducements he turned down, because Indianapolis was not just his post—it was his and his family's "home," and

WHEREAS There is little that can be done to fittingly honor the memory of such a man, who avoided tributes in his lifetime—who placed a low value on personal recognition and a high value on achievement. A memorial fund has been established locally in his honor to carry on the work to which he was dedicated. A proposal has been made to name a park in his honor. A national award in his own field has been proposed to perpetuate his name.

But we, the Common Council of the city he served so well, who can see all around us the fruits of his dedication, can best recognize our debt to this fine man by even stronger and more concerned efforts to build a better community. This is the final tribute—the memorial that would most fittingly honor the man. Now, therefore, be it RESOLVED By the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis, Indiana; that the Common Council does hereby declare its deep regret and loss at the passing of Howard F. Gustafson, and does further convey to the family of Howard F. Gustafson, the sympathy and condolences of the Common Council and the City of Indianapolis, and instructs the City Clerk to spread a copy of this Special Resolution in the Journal of the Common Council and to send a copy of this Special Resolution to the family of Mr. Howard F. Gustafson.

The Resolution will be framed and hung in our office in a prominent and appropriate place and the extra copies will be given to members of the family. Thanks so much for this special consideration given the memory of my father.

SUGGESTED RESOLUTION SUPPORTING A REFERENDUM ON THE QUESTION OF WHETHER A CONSTITUTIONAL SHOULD BE HELD

RESOLUTION NO. 8, 1966

Whereas, the present constitution of the State of Indiana was adopted in the year 1951; and

Whereas, the State of Indiana, at the time of the adoption of its constitution was predominantly rural; and

Whereas, the State, since the adoption of its constitution has evolved from a rural to an industrial state; and

Whereas, there have been few changes in the basic law because of the difficulties in amending the constitution; and

Whereas, the change in the economy of the State from rural to industrial accompanied by the vast changes in transportation facilities, population, living habits, conditions and needs of the people would seem to require a thorough study and evaluation of the fundamental law of the State; and

Whereas, this study and evaluation, if needed, can best be accomplished through a constitutional convention; and

Whereas, the people have not had an opportunity to express their opinion since 1914 on whether there is a need to study, re-evaluate and possibly change provisions of the Constitution; and

Whereas, the Indiana Municipal League in convention assembled on the 14th day of September, 1965, adopted a resolution in support of a referendum to the people on the question of whether Indiana should call a constitutional convention; and

Whereas, it seems that the people of Indiana, after a lapse of 53 years, should and of right ought to be given the opportunity to again voice their opinion as to the advisability of a constitutional convention;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved by the common council of the city of Indianapolis that its members support and that they also urge the citizens of Indianapolis to support the passage of a bill in the 1967 session of the General Assembly of Indiana to provide for a referendum on the question of whether a constitutional convention should be called to study and re-evaluate the provisions of the Indiana Constitution.

The motion to adopt the Resolution was made by Mr. Kuykendall and seconded by Mr. Deluse and passed on the following roll call:

Ayes 8, viz: Mr. Brydenthal, Reverend Cummings, Mr. Deluse, Mr. Hasbrook, Mr. Kuykendall, Mr. McGill, Mr. Moriarty and President Wallace.

Noes 1, viz: Mr. Egenes.

Mr. Brydenthal made a motion that the President of the Council appoint a Committee to meet with a similar committee of the County Council to consider Amendments to the Zoning Ordinance.

The motion was seconded by Mr. Deluse and passed on a voice vote.

President Wallace appointed Mr. Brydenthal, Chairman of the Committee, with Mr. Deluse and Mr. Egenes members.

The Clerk was instructed to notify the County Council.

Upon motion of Mr. Kuykendall, seconded by Mr. Brydenthal, the meeting adjourned at 8:55 P.M. upon unanimous voice vote.

We hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a full and complete record of the proceedings of the Common Council of the City of Indianapolis held on the 1st day of August, 1966 at 7:30 P.M.

In Witness Whereof, we have hereunto subscribed our signatures and caused the seal of the City of Indianapolis to be affixed.

Dear Mr. Wallace:

In reply to your request of August 1st asking that a committee be appointed by the County Council to confer with your members on Amendments to the Zoning Ordinance; we have made the following appointments:

Mr. Jack A. Buck, Chairman; Mr. Wm. A. Brown and Mr. Beurt R. SerVaas, members.

The Common Council of the City of Indianapolis
City-County Building
Indianapolis, Indiana

Gentlemen:

The recent disclosure that the Indianapolis Common Council, under Chapter 107 of the acts of 1959, has the authority to establish salaries of the members of the Indianapolis fire and police departments brings with it additional responsibilities.

May we recommend that the Council appoint a committee as soon as possible to study the entire problem of police and firemen's salaries so at next year's burget hearing these salaries can be established with a minimum of negotiation or trouble.

The committee could give consideration to a program of tying the salary schedule to the cost of living index after such salaries have been established on a just and fair basis.

To build up the interest and capacity of the individual members of these departments, consideration could be given to the program in Oakland, California, where upon completion of certain police science courses the pay of the individual members of the department is increased on a sliding scale from five to 10 percent, according to how they qualify. Tacoma, Washington, has instituted a similar program for all city employees and there are probably other cities in the country that could be checked upon by the committee for further information.

Sincerely yours,

FRANK J. MURRAY, President

The Council recessed at 8:00 P.M. for Committee hearings upon motion of Mr. Deluse, seconded by Mr. Kuykendall.

At that time those present were permitted to be heard on General Ordinances No. 80, No. 81, No. 82, No. 83, No. 84, No. 85, No. 86, No. 87 and No. 88, 1966.

The Council reconvened at 9:10 P.M.

Vice-President Moriarty called for the reading of the Committee reports.

Notice inviting sealed competitive bids shall be published at least once in one (1) newspaper of general circulation in the City of Indianapolis, and at least five calendar days must intervene between the date of final publication and the date set for the submitting of bids. Such notice shall give the specifications of the articles to be purchased, shall state the amount of surety to be submitted, if any, with the bid, and the surety to be given with the contract, the time and place for the opening of bids, and shall give in general terms the conditions of award of the contract. The City Purchasing Agent shall, in addition, solicit sealed bids from all prospective suppliers who have requested their names to be added to the mailing list of vendors or who may hereafter request that their names be entered on said list by sending them a copy of such newspaper notice or such other notice as will also be advertised by a notice posted on a public bulletin board in the Purchasing Agent's office.

All bids shall be submitted sealed to the City Purchasing Agent and shall be accompanied by surety in the form of certified check, cash or bond in such amount as the City Purchasing Agent shall prescribe in the public notice inviting bids. The bids shall be opened in public at the time and place stated in the newspaper notice. Any and all bids with alterations and erasures therein may be rejected. After examination and tabulation by the City Purchasing Agent, all bids may be inspected by the competing bidders. The City Purchasing Agent may, with the approval of the Mayor or, in his absence, the City Controller, reject any or all bids, or the bid for any one or more commodities included in the proposed contract, when the public interest will be served thereby. When all bids received are for the same total amount or unit price, and when the public interest will not permit the delay of readvertising for bids, the City Purchasing Agent may purchase the commodities in the open market, provided the price paid in the open market shall not exceed any bid price submitted for the same commodity. Otherwise, the contract shall be awarded to the lowest and best bidder; quality offered with bid, delivery terms, and service reputation of the vendors may be taken into consideration in determining the successful bidder.

Before any contract is executed, the successful bidder shall file with the City Purchasing Agent a surety in the form of certified check, cash or bond in an amount to be determined by the City Purchasing Agent. All surety bonds and contracts shall be approved as to form by the department of law of the City of Indianapolis. Such certified check, cash or surety bond shall be payable to the City of Indianapolis. All certified checks shall be upon banks doing business in the City of Indianapolis, and all surety companies shall be those who are duly licensed and authorized to do business in the State of Indiana. If the successful bidder shall not, within ten (10) days after the award, enter into contract and file the required surety, he shall forfeit the surety which accompanied his bid. A copy of each long term contract shall be filed in the office of the Purchasing Department and the office of the City Controller and shall be a public record.

Section 4. OPEN MARKET ORDERS. All expenditures for supplies and materials to be stored in the CENTRAL STOREROOM, the estimated cost of which is less than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) shall be made in the open market without newspaper advertisements and the procedure prescribed by Section 3 of this Ordinance. In case of an emergency which requires immediate purchase of supplies or materials, the Mayor, or, in his absence, the City Controller, may authorize the City Purchasing Agent to secure in the open market at the lowest obtainable price any supplies or materials, regardless of the amount of the expenditure; provided, however, that a full explanation of the circumstances of such emergency shall be entered in the records of the purchasing department and shall be open to public inspection.

All open market purchases shall, wherever possible, be based on at least three (3) competitive bids, and shall be awarded to the lowest and most responsible bidder. The City Purchasing Agent shall solicit bids by direct mail request to prospective vendors, by telephone and by public notice on a bulletin board in his office. The City Purchasing Agent shall keep a record of all open market orders and the bids submitted in competition thereon, and such records shall also be open to public inspection.

Section 5. ENCUMBRANCE OF FUNDS. Except in cases of emergency, the City Purchasing Agent shall not issue any order for delivery on a contract or any open market order for supplies or materials for the CENTRAL STOREROOM unless and until the City Controller certifies that there is to the credit of the revolving fund of the CENTRAL STOREROOM a sufficient balance in excess of all unpaid obligations to defray the cost of such supplies or materials.

Section 6. INSPECTION. The City Purchasing Department shall supervise inspection of all deliveries of supplies and materials for the CENTRAL STOREROOM to determine their conformance with the specifications set forth in the order or contract. Any department having the staff and facilities for adequate inspection may be authorized by the City Purchasing Agent to inspect all deliveries made to the CENTRAL STOREROOM under rules and regulations which the City Purchasing Agent shall establish. The City Purchasing Agent shall have authority to prescribe chemical and physical tests of samples submitted with bids and samples of deliveries to determine their quality and conformance with city specifications. In the performance of such duties the City Purchasing Agent shall have authority to make use of laboratory facilities of any agency of the City Government.

There is hereby appropriated by reducing office supplies funds of various Departments as follows, for the year 1967 the sum of Thirty-five Thousand Dollars ($35,000.00) as a revolving fund in the Department of Finance for the purchase of supplies and materials to be stored in the CENTRAL STOREROOM.
